Rialto Shortlisted for CIPD Consultant of the Year

London 18 June 2013 Rialto, the Business Transformation and HR Consultancy has been shortlisted in the Consultant of the Year category at this year's prestigious CIPD People Management Awards. The category is new this year and was included to reflect the growing influence of consultancies like Rialto and the important role played in helping organisations deliver business impact through people.

“To be shortlisted is a significant achievement for us and our consultant team” said Richard Chiumento, Director at Rialto. “We would like to thank all of our clients who have provided positive feedback on our high standards and collaborative approach in working with leadership teams which deliver transformational projects with high impact.”

The award recognises the continued success that Rialto are achieving utilising the innovative TPC change & transformation management methodology, which delivers tangible business benefits to client organisations. The winners will be announced at the CIPD on 17th September 2013.
